

Challenges to Youth Participation from an organizational perspective

The Students Commission

Purpose: The SCC is a charitable organization that purposefully works with others to ensure that young people are valued, heard and their ideas for improving themselves, the lives of their peers and communities are put into action.

Challenges

- Lack of consistent investment in regional, local initiatives
- Governance – walking the talk
- Diversity
- Data and monitoring structures
- Being an adult ally